

Journal of Latin American Cultural Studies Travesia, Volume 13 Issue 2 2004

ISSN: 1469-9575 (electronic) 1356-9325 (paper)

Publication Frequency: 3 issues per year

Subjects: Cultural Studies; Latin American Studies;

Publisher: Routledge

Previously published as: Travesia (0965-8343) until 1995

Politics and the documentary film in Argentina during the 1960s

Emilio Bernini

Pages 155 – 170

Abstract | Full Text PDF | Request Permissions

Cited By | Related Articles

Re-constituting Chocó: the feast of San Pacho and the Afro question in Colombia

Daniel Mosquera

Pages 171 – 194

Abstract | Full Text PDF | Request Permissions

Related Articles

Representations of the city in the narrative of Fernando Vallejo

Rory O'Bryen

Pages 195 – 204

Abstract | Full Text PDF | Request Permissions

Related Articles

The return of Coatlicue: Mexican nationalism and the Aztec past

Jean Franco

Pages 205 – 219

Abstract | Full Text PDF | Request Permissions

Related Articles

The war of the end of the world or the end of ideology

Adriana Johnson

Pages 221 – 241

Abstract | Full Text PDF | Request Permissions

Related Articles

The invention of the classics: nationalism, philology and cultural politics in Argentina

Fernando Degiovanni

Pages 243 – 260

Abstract | Full Text PDF | Request Permissions

Related Articles

From the capital of the nineteenth century to the Paris of the Caribbean: Vertigo and modernity in tres tristes tigres

John Patrick O'leary

Pages 261 – 280

Abstract | Full Text PDF | Request Permissions

Related Articles
